Why bankers rule the world

In the 2012 edition of Occupy Money released this month, Professor Margrit Kennedy writes that a stunning 35% to 40% of everything we buy goes to interest.

This interest goes to bankers, financiers, and bondholders, who take a 35% to 40% cut of our gross domestic product.

Netanyahu Leading Israel to Avoidable, but Obvious Defeat

Israel exists in a perpetual "besieged" mentality.

The Israeli people have been conditioned to view themselves as an island amidst a violent sea.

However, the constant belligerent posture of their government in fact drives the winds that churn that sea, and as the face of modern warfare shifts, and the more they use their armor and air power against their perceived enemies, the higher the waves become.

Historian and geopolitical expert Dr. Webster Tarpley noted in a recent PressTV interview that the paradigm has shifted in terms of modern warfare, and that tactics involving armor and air superiority cannot guarantee Israel its defense any longer...

Look what she is asking for from the General Public?

Govt Wants Help To Shape Royal Commission

<http://au.news.yahoo.com/latest/a/-/latest/15419175/govt-wants-help-to-shape-royal-commission/>

The Federal Government has allowed barely a week for Australians to help shape the terms of reference for a Royal Commission into child sexual abuse.

Exposing A Few Legal Bubble Heads – Dead Wood In the Legal System in Australia

Lets Make A List Of Them

1 x Federal Attorney General
7 x State Attorney General
1 x Director Commonwealth DPP
6 x Asst Directors in each State DPP
1 X Federal Dept Of Attorney General Office
7 x State Dept of Attorney General Offices

Now between them they all cannot sit down and work out how to put a Royal Commission Together?

Am I reading this right?

Now they are asking the Australia people for ideas to put it all together for them?

Govt Wants Help To Shape Royal Commission ????????????????????

Oh my fuck – sorry for swearing there is the proof and evidence right before peoples eyes.

This country is in worst shape then I thought?

Actually Not Bragging

Within 15 minutes of them announcing this Royal Commission, I had come up with the (Key – Lets Repeat) the key behind everything so it doesn't blow up in all their faces.

Then I went to do some research on the matter and see if I was right with (The Secret Key) and was that the only way to proceed from here with this proposed Royal Commission.

- Then my mouth dropped open wide and thought what have these Bubble Butt Heads done?

Let me share more 1 Slip up made – and “Bingo” The House Of Cards Blows Up In Your Faces.

- I am still trying to work out which “Borg Cell” set this off in motion, its going to take me two weeks to identify them.
- From afar another “Borg Cell” seen what the above card was played.

- Then one after another "Borg Cells" started playing along and said we are in too.
- Then another "Borg Cell" not from mine "The Nancy Wake Borg Cell"
- Showed their hand and ugly head and said we are in too.
- Then Dim Wit Opposition Leader Tony Abbott calls the Highest Hand in A game of 500 cards a 10 Trump Hand.
- Then Julia Gillard matched his 10 Trump hand back.

Brilliant Plan who ever came up with this plan, and all the "Borg Cells" played along perfectly well done my fellow human citizens of the World.

On behalf of 23 Million Australian – Aussies we thank you also

What's The Fall Out Damage Lloyd?

- Lets start with Nicola Roxon Federal Attorney General, when I wrote to her and put pen to paper, in support of the ASIO Negative Assessment of those Tamil Tigers Report 1000% thus backing up ASIO behind.

Where is 1 Phone call back, 1 letter back to say thanks Lloyd for your thoughts and opinions?

Right Nowhere to be seen in my folders.

I asked for an Appointment to see Kevin Rudd personally to ask him a few questions and talk to him.

Have A Guess What That Little Scully Wag Said To Me Then?

Come on people?

Guess?

Listen to this, this will make your head spin around, that little scully wag said on the phone to me, The Hon Prime Minister Kevin Rudd does not have to answer any questions he doesn't feel like answering, then she proceed to tell me he will only accept visitors from special people.

I said you what?

I called her what she was a dam rude little bitch and hanged up in her ear.

- I voted for Kevin Rudd's Party in 2007 Election, my Member Of Parliament in my area Catherine King, (Truth be told about her) she sits in Parliament warming the seat, her ass should be thrown out of Parliament for sure and send her packing to where every she came from.

And give her a job as Maid Of The Dairy, Milking Cows.

- I do thank my State Representative Geoff Howard and staff, guess what I got out of the blue from him on my 50th Birthday?

Yup you guess right a Birthday Card from my State Representative and his Office Staff.

I rang his Office and asked do you always do this to people?

He said yes Lloyd, we do.

And then before I hanged up he said don't forget Lloyd if there is anything Geoff or any of us in the Office can do for you.

FBI Rushes Into Home of Maryland Family and Shoots at Unarmed 18 Year Old Girl

This Thursday morning in District Heights, Maryland, an FBI SWAT team rushed into the home of an average, innocent family and shot at an unarmed, 18 year old girl.

According to ABC News: - "An early morning FBI raid has a District Heights family in fear.

The agents came into the house and drew their guns at the family's daughter, but she wasn't armed.

"They almost hit my daughter, man," says Emory Hughley.

"If I hadn't told her to go back in her room they probably would have shot her."

Nearly 50 Million Living in Poverty in US

The number of people living in poverty in the United States rose last year to 49.7 million, based on a new measure that provides a fuller picture of poverty than that previously reported by U.S. Census Bureau data.

The revised poverty rate of 16.1 percent is up more than a percentage point from the 15 percent figure reported by the government in September.

Coming a little more than a week after the 2012 elections, the news that nearly one in six Americans is living in poverty received little attention in the media or from the Obama administration.

Neither big-business party has any policies to alleviate growing poverty, which is exacerbated by entrenched unemployment and a sluggish economy.

I suspect that these numbers are actually low even so, these are absolutely frightening statistics.

But the bottom line is, no one in government really cares they are simply the acquisitions of those major corporations (and sometimes foreign governments) with the capacity to craft legislation favorable to them in return for overt or covert financial support.

Lies Revealed: Petraeus Speaks to the House and Senate About Benghazi

In a closed meeting with the House Intelligence Committee, former CIA director David Petraeus told representatives that the Obama administration's account of the attack on Benghazi does not match CIA intelligence provided at the time.

Petraeus was adamant that the attack as terroristic in nature.

He mentioned that the Department of Justice and US State Department were corroborating his account of the events.

Petraeus spent 90 minutes in talks with the House and another 90 minutes with the Senate before leaving Congress.

Petraeus' recollection invalidates Susan Rice, US Ambassador to the UN, initial comments about Benghazi who claimed it was the result of non-associated protests based on an anti-Muslim film.

U.S. workers endure 'lost decade' of declining wages

The nation's high unemployment rate captures the headlines with each monthly jobs report, yet many Americans may be surprised to learn that real earnings, when adjusted for inflation, have declined across most industries and sectors since the Great Recession. Since 2002, in fact, it's effectively been a lost decade for workers.

Equally troubling, real wages are now about the same level as they were in December 2005.

Put another way, wages have clawed back from the Great Recession only to the level of seven years ago.

"The recession was unprecedented, and the stagnation of wages has really been going on for some time," said Martin Kohli, the chief economist of the New York office of the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The only people for whom this economy is "improving" are those who are already among the ranks of the super-rich.

Israel Names Its Attack on Gaza After Biblical War Story

If you speak Hebrew, the Israeli Defense Forces would like you to refer to the wave of assassination strikes it commenced in Gaza today as "Pillar of Cloud," a Biblical reference to the form God adopted in order to protect the Children of Israel and strike terror into the heart of Egyptians. If you speak English, it would prefer you to use the less fanatical "Pillar of Defense."

Big Brother Kill List – And What To Expect From Obama Next 4 Year Term

The infrastructure development of the Obama administration's policy of targeted killing signals a creeping move toward domestic application.

As drone technology continues to be imported home, the convergence of the kill-list(s) within the NCTC bureaucracy

Which houses huge repositories of both domestic and foreign intelligence with no probable cause of criminality—is a foreboding development in this saga of eroding checks and disappearing balance.

As we have been telling you for quite some time, what has been happening, in terms of extrajudicial assassinations in Yemen, Pakistan, and Afghanistan, will not stay in Yemen, Pakistan, and Afghanistan they are coming home, folks, right inside the borders of the United States of America.

Is part of your brain gasping at reading this, and thinking "It CAN'T happen here," you'd better get over it.

In an interview published by numerous local CBS affiliates, a small town Sheriff from Montgomery County Texas may have inadvertently shed a spotlight on a new phenomenon in US law enforcement. While changes in national security are happening too fast and too secretly for most Americans to keep up, unmanned spy drones have been used recently across the country to monitor the actions of Americans. Now, many of those surveillance drones will be armed.

Welcome to Ameristan, courtesy of the last two administrations, where the former "land of the free and home of the brave" has morphed into the land of the cowed; and the home of the constantly surveilled, expecting extrajudicial assassination from the skies without due process, at any moment, for any possible "thought crime".

Gaza War Could Pave the Way for Israeli Attack on Iran

Air strikes are escalating and Israel seems to be on the verge of sending a ground invasion force into Gaza Strip.

All eyes are on Gaza, but perhaps not Benjamin Netanyahu's eyes, which remain squarely on Iran.

And indeed, even the escalations against Gaza are looking more and more like part of a broader strategy to sell the public on a future attack on Iran, with officials touting the rag-tag militias in the tiny, besieged strip as Iran's "front line."

I would strongly caution both Israeli Prime Minister Netanyahu and the Israeli people that the ability to brutally ethnically cleanse Gazans off the face of the map is a far more different issue than attempting to attack and invade Iran, and for the following reasons.

1. In spite of the presence of Hamas, Gaza has no standing army, which means its civilians are far easier to murder.

2. Any attack against Iran is going to bring with it a swift counter attack from Iranian forces, and Hezbollah from the north.

Israeli casualties (and Jewish casualties in Iran, which features one of the oldest Jewish communities in the world) will be horrific. the war may well "go long".

3. China, since this last July, has been developing oil in Iran's southern oil fields for its domestic consumption.

Any disruption in that flow of oil to an energy-hungry China will be construed by Chinese leadership as an attack against Chinese sovereign interests.

4. Russian government officials have also indicated that Russia will come to Iran's aid, should Iran be attacked.

5. So what we have here is the potential for a global nuclear confrontation over an alleged Iranian nuclear weapons program which cannot, to date, be proven to exist.

Mr. Prime Minister, please be careful what you wish for, both as outcomes for the invasion of Gaza, and the potential invasion of Iran; the unintended consequences here may be horrific, and irreversible.

The British Broadcasting Corporation – a Monument to Paedophilia.

13-year-old boy is killed in Gaza

A 13-year-old Palestinian boy in Gaza was fatally shot Thursday, the Gaza Health Ministry said.

A spokesman for the ministry accused the Israel Defense Forces of killing the boy.

"Hameed Abu Daqqa was killed by an Israeli military helicopter after being shot in the head while playing football with his friends east of Khan Younis," ministry spokesman Ashraf al-Qidra told CNN.

This is what started the violence.

Shooting a child who is playing soccer from a helicopter is a brutal and inhumane act.

It was clearly intended to provoke a reaction by the Palestinians, who react to the murder of their children in exactly the same way you would.

The Palestinians shot at the IDF soldiers.

Israel retaliated by shooting two more children, then opened fire on the funeral for one of them.

Each act by Israel was intended to provoke the maximum rage in the families of the victims.

Meanwhile, in the United States, all we saw on ABCNNBBCBSFOX was Penisgate, and the first news about Israel and Gaza reported to the American audience was when Gaza fired some rockets into Israel and was portrayed as the unreasonable aggressor who started it all.

The Federal Reserve is asking 30 big banks to make sure their capital can withstand a deep recession in which the unemployment rate rises to 12%. The Fed, which first required big banks to conduct “stress tests” in 2009, laid out three scenarios lenders have to test against.

The goal is to ensure that the firms have enough capital to continue operations during stressful economic times.

A severe bout of cold weather looks to be heading Britain's way

Britain will grind to a halt within weeks as the most savage freeze for a century begins.

Temperatures will fall as low as minus 20C in rural areas, forecasters warned last night, while heavy snow and "potentially dangerous" blizzards will close roads and cripple rail networks.

James Madden, forecaster for Exacta Weather, said: "We are looking at some of the coldest and snowiest conditions in at least 100 years.

This is most likely to occur in the December to January period with the potential for widespread major snowfall across the country.

ISRAEL PULLS OUT THE VICTIM CARD IN JERUSALEM

In order to get the sympathy it needs to get the bucks from abroad, Israel must continue looking like the victim.

In order to do this, it must convince its own Sheeple that they are in danger, thereby justifying their continuing holocaust against the people of Palestine, Gaza in particular.

Last night, about five minutes into evening Shabbat services at our local synagogue, the sirens went off first time that happened in Jerusalem since the Gulf War.

The Sheeple went running to the bomb shelter and continued their service there the rest of us held our place and continued.

FEAR mission accomplished as far as Bibi is concerned at least temporarily until the truth is exposed.

Jews – still running the world, implies the Guardian

Note that no comments are allowed on this pro-Israel attack on a cartoon.

Were comments allowed, I would point out that the US Senate and the US house just unanimously passed resolutions in support of Israel.

Then I would dare anyone to find an example over the last half century where the Senate and House voted unanimously on anything not related to Israel.

WHO IS THE THREAT TO WORLD PEACE? CHRISTIANS, JEWS, OR MUSLIMS!

Since the 1979 Iranian revolution and the downfall of the US Puppet Ruler the Shah, Iran has been an Islamic state.

In that interval of time, 1979 to the present, Iran has not invaded anyone.

Not once.

People of all religions live in peace in Iran, even Jews, who find life so comfortable in Iran they refused an offer by the government of Israel to emigrate!

In the same period of time, Israel, a self-declared Jewish state, attacked Iraq in 1981, bombing the power station at Osirik, claiming it was a clandestine weapons factory.

Subsequent examination of the ruins following the 2003 invasion proved Israel had lied.

In 1982, Israel invaded Lebanon.

This led to the Massacres at Sabra and Shatilla.

In February 2003 Israel staged incursions into Gaza and Nablus. In September 2007 Israel bombed Syria, again insisting they were destroying a clandestine weapons laboratory.

Again there was no evidence to support Israel's claims.

In 2006, Israel attacked Lebanon, killing 1200, mostly civilians, several UN observers, and littering the landscape with land mines on their way out.

In February 2008 Israel again raided Gaza, killing over 100.

HAMAS agreed to a cease fire and kept it for 6 months until November 4, when Israel again attacked without warning, killing 6 HAMAS members, and launching operation CAST LEAD.

1300 Gazans, mostly civilians, were killed. Israel lost 13 soldiers.

Violations of international law included the use of White Phosphorus incendiary bombs against civilians and non-military targets.

The United Nations investigated, but Israel refused to cooperate.

In May 2010, Israel attacked an international aid flotilla bringing food and medical supplies to Gaza in international waters.

9 people were murdered including an American from New York.

In the same period of time, the United States, officially a secular nation but predominantly Christian, attacked El Salvador (1980), Libya (1981), Sinai (1982), Lebanon (1982 1983), Egypt (1983), Grenada (1983), Honduras (1983), Chad (1983), Persian Gulf (1984), Libya (1986) , Bolivia (1986), Iran (1987)

Persian Gulf (1987), Kuwait (1987), Iran (1988), Honduras (1988), Panama (1988), Libya (1989), Panama (1989), Colombia, Bolivia, and Peru (1989), Philippines (1989), Panama (1989-1990), Liberia (1990), Saudi Arabia (1990), Iraq (1991), Zaire (1991), Sierra Leone (1992), Somalia (1992), Bosnia-Herzegovina (1993 to present), Macedonia (1993), Haiti (1994), Macedonia (1994), Bosnia (1995), Liberia (1996), Central African Republic (1996), Albania (1997), Congo/Gabon (1997), Sierra Leon (1997), Cambodia (1997), Iraq (1998), Guinea/Bissau (1998), Kenya/Tanzania (1998 to 1999), Afghanistan/Sudan (1998), Liberia (1998), East Timor (1999), Serbia (1999), Sierra Leon (2000), Yemen (2000), East Timor (2000), Afghanistan (2001 to present), Yemen (2002), Philippines (2002), Cote d'Ivoire (2002), Iraq (2003 to present), Liberia (2003), Georgia/Djibouti (2003), Haiti (2004), Georgia/Djibouti/Kenya/Ethiopia/Yemen/Eritrea War on Terror (2004), Pakistan drone attacks (2004 to present), Somalia (2007), South Ossetia/Georgia (2008), Syria (2008), Yemen (2009), Haiti (2010), etc. etc. etc. etc.

So, who is the danger to world peace?

MEGA BEX ALERT! Israel tries to lay the blame on Iran!

The military said it targeted more than 100 long- and medium- range rocket launching sites and several launch squads overnight, doing "significant" damage to stockpiles that include Iran-supplied Fajr-5 missiles.

Israel is claiming that Iran has supplied Fajr-5 rockets to whoever inside Gaza is launching them at Israel.

BULL BISCUITS!

Israel's blockade of Gaza is so tight that crayons and musical instruments for Gaza's children cannot get through.

The Fajr-5 is 6 1/2 meters long, and weighs 915 Kilograms.

It requires a launcher, which is 10 1/2 meters long.

Think something that big and heavy gets smuggled in through a tunnel?

And common sense applies here.

Why would Iran do such a stupid thing?

All it would take is just one of these rockets to be discovered and captured by the Israelis to provide Israel and the US an excuse for an attack.

Yet Israel claims that the Gazans had a multitude of these rockets.

This is an Israeli hoax to drag Iran into conflict and start the long desired war to "dollarize" Iran's oil fields.

Please post this common sense reply everywhere you see this story trying to demonize Iran.

WORLD NET DAILY JOINS AGENDA TO EXTEND GAZA WAR INTO IRAN.

According to a source in the Revolutionary Guards intelligence division, Iran has large stockpiles of chemical and microbial weapons and it has armed the Lebanese terrorist group Hezbollah with them.

It also has Quds Forces in Gaza and other Palestinian territories to help Hamas and Islamic Jihad in setting up underground rocket facilities while training and supervising the Palestinians in launching attacks on Israel.

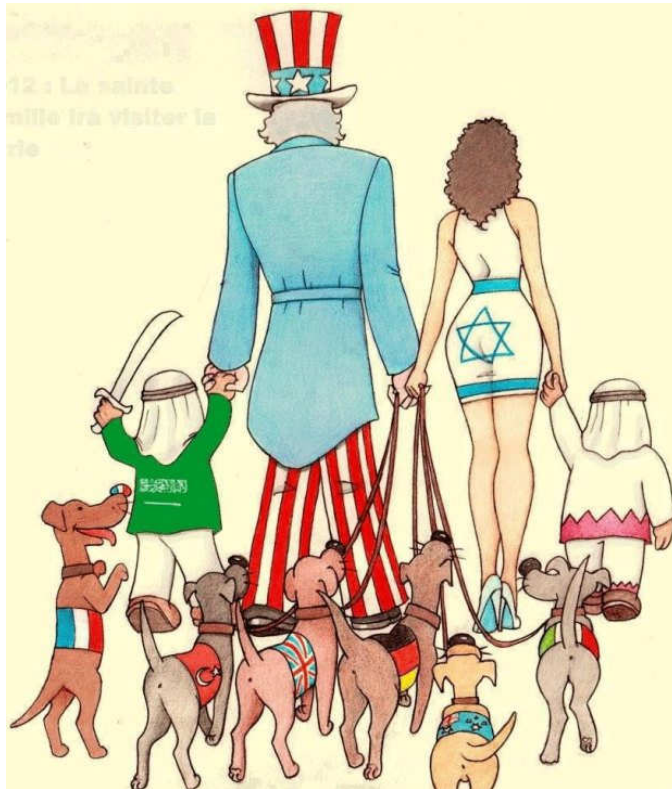

Common sense applies here.

Why would Iran do such a stupid thing?

All it would take is just one of these "underground rocket facilities" to be discovered and captured by the Israelis to provide Israel and the US an excuse for an attack.

As for the claims about "Chemical weapons", this is just a repeat of the lie about Saddam's nukes.

U.S. gives 'full backing' to Israel while urging de-escalation of Gaza violence

The Israeli ambassador to Washington, Michael Oren, says the US has given his government a free hand in its assault on Gaza as the Israeli cabinet ordered a large call up of military reserves, prompting fears of a ground invasion.

Obama has given Netanyahu a green light for the IDF to kill as many Palestinians as is humanly possible in the coming ground invasion.

There will be no "de-escalation of Gaza violence"; only more slaughter, and Obama understands this completely.

Attorneys: Obama's 'secret' cyber security law may allow 'military deployment within the U.S.'

The White House on Wednesday received a Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (PDF link) from two attorneys with the Electronic Privacy Information Center (EPIC), demanding that President Barack Obama release the text of what they called a "secret" new cyber security law that appears to enable "military deployment within the United States."

The FOIA was filed in response to an article that appeared in The Washington Post this week, claiming that Obama issued a secret directive shortly before the elections that empowers the military to "vet any operations outside government and defense networks" for cyber security purposes.

However, because the exact text of the directive remains a secret, nobody can really say exactly what it does. That was somewhat disconcerting to American Civil Liberties Union legislative counsel Michelle Richardson, who told Raw Story on Wednesday that without the text, "it's hard to see what they mean."

Secret laws; star chambers; indefinite detention without due process; and the criminalization of peaceful, thoughtful differences of opinion from that of any Federal Government?

IS THIS what the United States of America has come to, in the 21st century?

Unfortunately, courtesy of the last two administrations, and the passage of the Homeland Security Act, the Patriot Act, and the NDAA, the short answer is, YES.

The Crimes of War Committed “In the Name of 9/11?”

The tragic events of September 11, 2001 constitute a fundamental landmark in American history, a decisive watershed, a breaking point.

Millions of people have been misled regarding the causes and consequences of 9/11.

September 11 2001 opens up an era of crisis, upheaval and militarization of American society.

The post September 11, 2001 era is marked by the outright criminalization of the US State, including its judicial, foreign policy, national security and intelligence apparatus.

9/11 marks the onslaught of the “Global War on Terrorism” (GWOT), used as a pretext and a justification by the US and its NATO allies to carry out a “war without borders”, a global war of conquest.

A far-reaching overhaul of US military doctrine was launched in the wake of 9/11.

9/11 was also a stepping stone towards the relentless repeal of civil liberties, the militarization of law enforcement and the inauguration of "Police State USA".

Yet reparations are still being paid to the survivors of six million ghost victims while no reparation ever has been or is being paid to any other ethnic group.

Child sex abuse whistle-blower's car suffers mysterious brake failure & near fatal traffic accident

THE whistle-blower who exposed the Welsh children's home sex abuse scandal has cheated death in a suspect car smash after his brakes failed.

Police have seized care boss Malcolm King's motor to see if it was sabotaged.

The car, a regularly-maintained Volvo S60, careered across a busy A-road and was hit side-on by an Alfa Romeo.

Afterwards Mr King, 68, who suffered a broken leg, found his brake pedal unattached and lying on the car floor.

The outspoken former boss of social services in Clwyd, where much of the abuse took place, told the Daily Star yesterday: "I guess I've pissed a lot of people off over the years.

It is the protein that is closest to human globulin, and is very easily digestible by the body.

Dollar collapse: 7 of 10 Asian countries turn to yuan

A "renminbi bloc" has been formed in East Asia, as nations in the region abandon the US dollar and peg their currency to the Chinese yuan — a major signal of China's successful bid to internationalize its currency, a research report has said.

The Peterson Institute for International Economics, or PIIE, said in its latest research that China has moved closer to its long-term goal for the renminbi to become a global reserve currency.

Gaza & the Politics of 'Greater Israel'

The siege on Gaza is an impetus to consider Henry Kissinger's prediction, "In 10 years, there will be no more Israel."

Sixteen US intelligence agencies that collectively issued an 82-page analysis titled, "Preparing for a Post-Israel Middle East," concluded that Netanyahu's Likud coalition has enthusiastically condoned and supported illegal settlements, while enforcing an apartheid-style infrastructure upon Palestinians.

Israel, the only nuclear-armed country in the Middle East, has all the attributes of an international pariah state and its current path is unsustainable.

If Israel devastates Gaza, the backlash would create momentum that threatens the very existence of the Jewish state.

Under Bibi's watch, Israel will either continue to enforce the ideological tenants of political Zionism on its neighbors, or die trying.

Israel launches 180 airstrikes on Gaza overnight (Telegraph)

As up to 75,000 Israeli reservists were mobilised for a possible ground invasion, war planes made overnight raids on a series of government buildings and security installations.

As well as Mr Haniyeh's offices, they hit the Hamas interior ministry and the massive police headquarters in Gaza City, which sparked a huge blaze that engulfed nearby houses.

The latest missile exchanges came amid signs of an imminent ground invasion.

Commanders have hinted that it could possibly begin as soon as this weekend.

Israel's armed forces have cordoned off a highway and two roads bordering the Gaza enclave, declaring it for military traffic only.

Tanks and self-propelled guns were seen near the border area on Friday.

Flashback: British Jewish Zionist MP Gerald Kaufman says Israel acting like Nazis in Gaza

However many Palestinians the Israelis murder in Gaza, they cannot solve this existential problem by military means.

Whenever and however the fighting ends, there will still be 1.5 million Palestinians in Gaza and 2.5 million more on the west bank.

They are treated like dirt by the Israelis, with hundreds of road blocks and with the ghastly denizens of the illegal Jewish settlements harassing them as well.

The time will come, not so long from now, when they will outnumber the Jewish population in Israel.

It is time for our Government to make clear to the Israeli Government that their conduct and policies are unacceptable, and to impose a total arms ban on Israel.

It is time for peace, but real peace, not the solution by conquest which is the Israelis real goal but which it is impossible for them to achieve.

They are not simply war criminals they are fools.

Our Hearts, Minds, And Wills Have Been Seized For World War III

We will never get the truth from the poisonous totalitarian governments in America and Iran about the hostage crisis or any other controversial event.

U.S. leaders will never tell the American people, "What's up."

Look, we and Israel did 9/11, not Al-Qaeda. Sorry about that. Can we still be friends?"

Lying is how they get by.

It is their only way to maintain their perverse control over millions.

They are not going to stop lying now.

There must be no quit in truth-tellers and peace-seekers, either.

We can't stop telling the truth about 9/11 and other myths that justify war.

We must tell the truth, regardless of how unpopular it may be.

The truth makes totalitarian propaganda irrelevant and meaningless.

Jane Harman being considered to head CIA despite connection to Israel-AIPAC spy scandal — Updated

Editor's Note: Given the billionaires involved and AIPAC (and the committee Harman headed), it would make perfect sense, and the CIA could then issue ominous warnings about Iran...

Jane Harman being considered to head CIA despite connection to Israel-AIPAC spy scandal — Updated

It's astounding to see reports by CNN, Politico, and others that former California Democratic Congresswoman Jane Harman is being considered as a possible new head of the CIA, given the fact that she was implicated in an Israeli spy scandal in 2005.

Despite apparently strong evidence against Harman, the expected Justice Department investigation never happened the powerful Congresswoman and Israel advocate from southern California got off and today the media, at least so far, are failing to mention an incident that one would expect to be problematic for a potential director of the CIA.

Below, based on reports by TPM, Salon, Time, Stephen Walt, the New York Times, Antiwar.com and a C&L, is the general story of Harman's apparent promise to an Israeli agent to help people indicted for espionage on behalf of Israel

In 2005 a federal wiretap reportedly picked up a conversation between Congresswoman Harman and a suspected Israeli agent.

According to the reports, Harman told the Israeli agent that she would lobby the Justice Department to reduce espionage-related charges against two officials of the American Israeli Public Affairs Committee (AIPAC).

In return, the suspected Israeli agent (who may have been a dual-citizen American) reportedly pledged to help lobby Nancy Pelosi, then-House minority leader, to appoint Harman chair of the Intelligence Committee.

Harman was already the ranking Democrat on the committee.

At the end of the conversation, Harman reportedly said: "This conversation doesn't exist."

Harman's denials can be read at Congressional Quarterly's Roll Call, which seems to have removed the 2009 story that provided numerous details about what it termed Harman's "completed crime."

The US-Israel Special Relationship

It's unknown whether the removal of the article is related to the fact that three months after the story broke, Congressional Quarterly was bought by the Economist Group.

The AIPAC spying case that Harman is said to have offered to help on consisted of two top AIPAC officials who had been indicted for illegally obtaining classified documents about Iran and passing these to Israel

(As well as to Washington Post journalist Glenn Kessler, whose speaker bio lists three topics “Global Affairs, Jewish Interest, Middle East Issues”).

One of those indicted defended himself by stating that AIPAC regularly obtains and hands on classified U.S. information.

When AIPAC, worried at the public exposure caused by the indictments, fired the two men, numerous AIPAC Mega-donor Haim Saban and Jane Harman donors continued to support the two officials, despite evidence that the men had leaked classified US documents to a foreign country.

Subsequent lawsuits involving one of the indicted, Steven Rosen, revealed this information (and additional sleazy details about AIPAC officials), including the fact that Rosen had reportedly received $670,000 from such Israel partisans as Slim-Fast billionaire Daniel Abraham, philanthropist Lynn Schusterman, Israeli-American Haim Saban, and dozens of others.

Saban, who also donates millions of dollars to Democratic candidates, says his “greatest concern is to protect Israel.”

(His wife was recently nominated to be US ambassador to the UN.)

Saban had reportedly lobbied Pelosi on behalf of Harman, but Pelosi eventually decided to appoint a different person chair of the House Intelligence Committee (Silvestre “Silver” Reyes of Texas, another recipient of pro-Israel campaign donations).

Jane Harman speaks to Phoenix Aipac event Harman, who frequently speaks at AIPAC events, is widely known for her strong advocacy for Israel and of Middle East wars on behalf of it JTA has reported she is “beloved by the pro-Israel lobby.”

In her nine terms in Congress, Harman served on all the major security committees six years on Armed Services, eight years on Intelligence and four on Homeland Security.

Harman is currently the director, president, and CEO of the Woodrow Wilson Center.

Harman was married to billionaire Sidney Harman, owner of Newsweek, until his death last year.

In 2008 Jane Harman was listed as the second-richest member in congress.

Below is a video report on Jane Harman's alleged promise to help treasonous former AIPAC officials in return for being put in charge of House oversight of US intelligence agencies.

It is disturbing to find that she may now get an even more powerful position.

Camp FEMA: American Lockdown

Recent legislation attempting to legitimize the use of internment camps to detain U.S. citizens in the event of an uprising or civil unrest has many people asking what nation they live in.

In a country born out of political dissent, we watch our leaders in Washington slowly pass bills that label ordinary Americans as thought criminals and potential domestic terrorists for simply questioning the actions of their government.

We see third party candidates and their impassioned supporters listed in secret government reports that call their allegiance into question and brand them as fanatics and extremists.

Since 2001 The United States of America has been held hostage by the fabricated and monstrous official lie that Muslims carried out the 9/11 attacks.

Because Zionist Jews nearly completely control the media the truth about 9/11 has been suppressed and resulted in the creation of a police state.

It has also led to vicious wars created by Central Bankers for their personal profit and where millions have been killed, maimed and made homeless.

Keating urges Australia to focus on Indonesia

Oi, Oi, Oi, Oi, Here is a Blow Hard from the past,
Question: - You and that Chief of Staff of yours were the Master Minds behind 1996 Port Arthur Massacre Tasmania wasn't it?

BOO! BOO! BOO!

Former prime minister Paul Keating says Australia needs to dramatically improve its relationship with Indonesia and stop being subservient to the United States.

Mr Keating delivered the Keith Murdoch Oration in Melbourne last night, with a speech titled "Asia in the new order Australia's diminishing sphere of influence".

He spoke to Lateline before making the speech, saying Indonesia should become Australia's most important strategic relationship.

Almost two decades ago he declared "no country is more important to Australia than Indonesia".

Now Mr Keating says the current relationship has no structure or coherence and is full of transactional issues like live cattle exports and refugee management.

"Our natural stamping ground is South-East Asia," Mr Keating told Lateline last night.

"The effort we should be making is with the Association of South-East Asian Nations (ASEAN).

"In fact, I'm suggesting in the speech we should be a member of ASEAN.

"We should be redoubling our efforts on the bilateral relationship with Indonesia.

"Where Indonesia goes strategically so go we, in which case the rise of that great state is centrally important.

"Our strategic bread is entirely buttered in the Indonesian archipelago. "This is at our neighbourhood, this is at our doorstep - rather than simply trying to second guess the Americans and the Chinese about the South China Sea or North Asia."

'Real foreign policy'

The Government is looking to boost its credibility when it comes to its Asian foreign policy, with Prime Minister Julia Gillard talking up Australia's future in the region at a community cabinet form in Brisbane last night.

"The region which will shortly become home to more middle-class people than anywhere else on the planet, people who will want to buy the things Australians are good at making and good at selling.

This is a huge opportunity for us," she said.

But Mr Keating says if Australia wants to be more relevant to Asia it must develop what he calls a "real foreign policy" - one which is independent and does not centre on managing alliances.

He says Australia will always be friends with the US, but the strategic power of the west is diminishing.

"I think that we are far too deferential to what we see as the proclivities of US foreign policy vis-À-vis our own," he said.

"Not knowing when to strike out on your own, not knowing when to map out your prerogatives and where the lines are all blurred with their own.

"(Former prime minister John) Howard described himself as a deputy sheriff, remember this, in Asia.

"In the WikiLeaks cables, the Chinese discovered that Kevin Rudd was urging the Americans to keep the military option open against them. This is hardly a friendly gesture.

"And of course we had President Obama make an aggressive anti-Chinese speech fundamentally in our parliamentary chamber, the so-called pivot speech.

"We're in the lee of the great whoosh of American policy making for good or for bad - we have been.

"Now, we're entitled to pick the eyes out of it, but we should not expect to be taken for bunnies."

Opposition foreign affairs spokeswoman Julie Bishop says Australia does not have to choose between the US and Asia. "I believe that with careful diplomacy and extensive consultation, we can have the United States as our military ally and closest friend, but that doesn't preclude us having strong relationships in the region particularly with China, Japan, Indonesia, India, for example," she said.

Asia must avoid mistakes of Europe

Rudd

Former prime minister Kevin Rudd has likened the atmosphere in the Asia-Pacific to that of Europe before the world wars and warned of "conflict by mishap".

Mr Rudd, who also served as foreign minister, was addressing the Foreign Correspondents Association in Sydney on the future of Chinese-American relations after their respective presidential elections next month.

He said the Asia-Pacific area would be central to that relationship as China continues to grow as a dominant power.

"What we are seeking to do in Asia is avoid repeating the mistakes of Europe over the 300 years (up to the) fall of Berlin," Mr Rudd said.

"If we're serious about having a regional security-based order in Asia in the future, one which prevents or reduces the possibility of any individual incident flaring up and then catching fire across the rest of the region, then we have to do better than we currently are."

He referred to the current China-Japan conflict over islands in the East China Sea, and the Chinese irritation caused by the presence of US aircraft carriers in the Pacific. "The problem at present is that when each of these issues flares up, it's like the surrounding security policy environment is tinder dry," Mr Rudd said.

He urged both powers to familiarise themselves with each other over the coming years, and to agree on basic principles regarding the security of the region.

This includes the US acceptance of China's peaceful rise, China's acceptance of the US's continued strategic presence and its alliances in the area, and a commitment of non-use of force in the resolution of regional disputes.

But Mr Rudd stressed that "creative middle powers" in the region must also have a voice.

"Asia and the Pacific is not a China-US monopoly," he said.

"The rest of us live here as well, and we all have a view."

Mr Rudd said the Asia-Pacific found itself caught in the competing cross-currents of globalisation and called for governments to build stronger military relationships.

"(We need measures) to avoid conflict by mishap ... in an environment that exhibits all the characteristics of the strategic theatre of Europe in the 19th century," he said.

"There were no confidence and security-building measures then, just as there are none in Asia today."

Australia wants closer ASEAN ties FM Carr

SYDNEY (AFP) - Australia will elevate its engagement with the Association of Southeast Asian Nations

And seek to more closely align its foreign policy with that of the bloc, according to Foreign Minister Bob Carr.

In an interview with the Australian Financial Review published Friday, Carr said Australia, which last weekend released a comprehensive blueprint for enhancing its ties with Asia, recognised ASEAN's "centrality in the region".

"I am quite happy to be associated with a shift (in Australia's level of engagement)," Carr said.

"I think we need to ease into habits of consultation with ASEAN as a grouping and with its individual members and also relax into the habit of listening to them more as they talk about their region."

The sweeping policy blueprint, "Australia in the Asian Century", released last weekend, set a series of goals for the next 13 years to seize upon Asia's rapid ascent as a global economic powerhouse.

The ambitious plan is aimed at maximising links with booming China and other soaring Asian economies to power Australia into the world's top 10 wealthiest nations by 2025.

Prime Minister Julia Gillard said China, India, Indonesia, Japan, South Korea and the United States would be Australia's key partners while Canberra also decided to post a full-time ambassador to the 10-nation ASEAN.

Carr said no regional grouping was more relevant to Australia's security or prosperity than ASEAN, which groups Brunei, Cambodia, Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Myanmar, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam.

"I want to emphasise the sheer vitality of the economies that lie within ASEAN and their importance to Australia ... taken as a bloc it is our number two trading partner," he told the newspaper.

Carr, who travels to Indonesia and Malaysia in coming days, added that ASEAN had been at the forefront of resolving disputes over territory in the South China Sea involving China.

"ASEAN members want to see ASEAN prove itself on this issue," he said.

Chief Rabbi "I think it has got to do with Iran, actually."

Britain's Chief Rabbi, Lord Sacks, was asked "Any thoughts on what's going on in Israel and Gaza at the moment?"

In what way could Israel's latest war (In all but name) on the Gaza Strip be "to do with Iran"?

Woops! Study Accidentally Finds Chemotherapy Makes Cancer Far Worse

<http://naturalsociety.com/chemotherapy-makes-cancer-far-worse/>

A team of researchers looking into why cancer cells are so resilient accidentally stumbled upon a far more important discovery.

While conducting their research, the team discovered that chemotherapy actually heavily damages healthy cells and subsequently triggers them to release a protein that sustains and fuels tumor growth.

Beyond that, it even makes the tumor highly resistant to future treatment.
